

NAME _____

DATE _____

ARTICLES

1. Articles are little words. They do the work of adjectives. 'A', 'An' and 'The' are called articles.
2. 'A' and 'An' refer to one person/thing/animal. 'An' comes before vowel sounds A, E, I, O, U.
3. 'The' is used before unique things, nouns we can't count and also refer to the common nouns read first.

Choose the correct article and bubble in red.

Example:

Gregory has a laptop.

a

an

the

1. I found ___ one eyed person.

a

an

the

2. She is ___ Indian.

a

the

an

3. ___ Bible is a great book.

a

an

the

4. Can I have ___ watermelon?

a

an

the