INTERROGATIVE SENTENCES

An interrogative sentence helps to ask for something and ask a question. It ends with a question mark (?)

Tick (✓) the interrogative sentences and cross (X) the declarative sentences.

1) Is it a big road roller? [   ]

    It is a big road roller. [   ]

----

2) The teacher will help the poor students. [   ]

    Will the teacher help the poor students? [   ]

----

3) Does he play hockey every day? [   ]

    Yes, he does. [   ]

----

4) The train arrived at 9 P.M. [   ]

    When did the train arrive? [   ]

----

5) How many brothers have you? [   ]

    I have two brothers. [   ]

EDUBUZZ KIDS