

NAME _____

DATE _____

INTERROGATIVE SENTENCES

A sentence that asks a question is called interrogative sentence. A question mark (?) is used to close this sentence.

Select the correct word to fill the blank. Underline the selected word with red crayon.

1. ___ you go climbing yesterday? Yes, I went. (do / did)

2. ___ your mother preparing fish fry? No, she is not. (is / are)

3. _____ does the baby want? A toy helicopter. (what / who)

4. _____ won the race? A tortoise. (who / which)

5. ___ you cute children? Yes, we are. (do / are)

