

NAME _____

DATE _____

PRONOUNS

Personal pronouns refer to specific persons or things. They stand for three persons.

First person: person or persons speaking. Second person: person or persons spoken to. Third person: person / thing / persons / things spoken of.

A personal pronouns used must have the same number, gender and person as the noun it stands for personal pronouns may be used as subject / object in a sentence.

Check whether the personal pronouns are correctly used in the following sentences. Write T / F in the brackets given.

Example:

i) Would you care for a cool drink. [T]

ii) Jack and Jane are class mates. We are good friends. [F]

1) Let he go there. []

2) I am looking for her in the party. []

3) He brought I a good message. []

