

NAME _____ DATE _____

PRONOUNS

Personal pronouns refer to specific persons or things. They stand for three persons.

First person: person or persons speaking. Second person: person or persons spoken to. Third person: person / thing / persons / things spoken of.

A personal pronouns used must have the same number, gender and person as the noun it stands for personal pronouns may be used as subject / object in a sentence.

Use correct personal pronoun given in the parenthesis and write it in the space provided.

Example:

John, James and I (I / me) are friends.

1) You and ____ (he / him) can never play together.

2) There is good friendship between ____ (us / we).

3) The teacher gave ____ (I / me) a present.

4) Let ____ (us / me) work together.

