CORRECT USE OF VERBS

Some verbs are constantly misused by children. "There is cookies.", is an example for misuse of verb. It should be corrected as "There are cookies.", since cookies is plural. The short form of "there is" 'is there's. But we don't have any short form for "there are".

Choose the correct verb forms for the following and write them on the blanks given.

Example:

There are (is/are) balloons.

1. There ____ (are/is) plants in the garden.

2. There ____ (are/is) few children in the class.

3. There ____ (are/is) some rice bags in the store.

4. There ____ (are/is) three more lessons left to read.
