

NAME _____ DATE _____

USE OF VERBS

Using 'Be' form verbs in present tense.

Verb is a doing or being word. It tells something about a person/animal/thing. A verb in present tense refers to present time.

'Am, are and is' are present forms of 'Be' form verb.

a) 'Am' is used with first person singular; that is 'I'.

b) 'Are' is used with second person and plurals; that is 'You' and other plurals we and they.

c) is used with third person singulars; that is 'He', 'She', and 'It'.

Fill in the space with suitable verb forms. Circle the correct form of verb given in brackets.

1) Allan and Alfred _____ best friends. [am, is, are]

2) What _____ you doing? I _____ skipping. [are, am/is, are/am, is]

3) It _____ raining outside. [am, is, are]

4) The puzzle _____ difficult. [am, is, are]

