

NAME _____ DATE _____

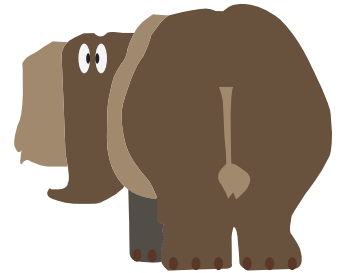

APOSTROPHE (POSSESSIVE NOUNS)

Possessive pronouns like my, mine, his, her, your, our, their etc... convey possession. Hence they don't take apostrophe and 'S' contractions can't be used in place of possessive pronouns.

Fill in the blanks with correct pronoun form given in parenthesis.

Examples:

i) The elephant is big. _____ (Its / It's) back is broad.

Answer: The elephant is big. Its back is broad.

ii) It is _____ (your / you're) friend Mr. Jack.

Answer: It is your friend Mr. Jack.

1) What is _____ (your / you're) father?

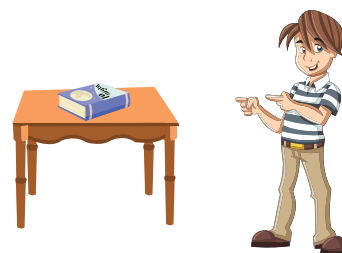

Answer: _____

2) It is _____ (her's / her) basket.

Answer: _____

3) I want to borrow _____ (his / his') book

Answer: _____