

NAME _____ DATE _____

BUNDLE AND COUNT

Counting by ones, tens and hundreds.

- 1) Show a way to count from 127 to 202 using tens and ones. Explain why do you choose to count this way?

127 to 202

By writing ones and tens we have.

127, 128, 129, ____, 140, ____, 160, ____, 180, ____, 200, 201, ____.

How many ones are there = ____.

How many tens are there = ____.

How many numbers are there in all = $70 + \underline{\hspace{1cm}} = \underline{\hspace{1cm}}$

Using tens and ones. It is very ____ to count and also ____ our time.

- 2) Show a way to count from 137 to 196 using tens and ones. Explain why do you choose to count this way?

137 to 196

By writing ones and tens we have.

137, 138, 139, 140, 150, 160, ____, ____, ____, 191, 192, ____, ____,
____, 196.

How many ones are there = ____.

How many tens are there = ____.

How many numbers are there in all = $50 + \underline{\hspace{1cm}} = \underline{\hspace{1cm}}$

Using tens and ones. It is very ____ to count and also save our ____.